

Living

Most of the people in Holland live in these terraced houses.

This is an example of an old step gable house.

Living

There are also many block of flats in Holland.

Windmill with shed.

This is a villa for rich people.

Transport

Almost everybody has a bicycle. This is a parkingplace for bicycles near the trainstation.

Crossing with traffic lights. Cyclists and foot-passengers have their own traffic lights.

There are a lot of cycle-tracks what makes it very save to ride a bike.

Transport

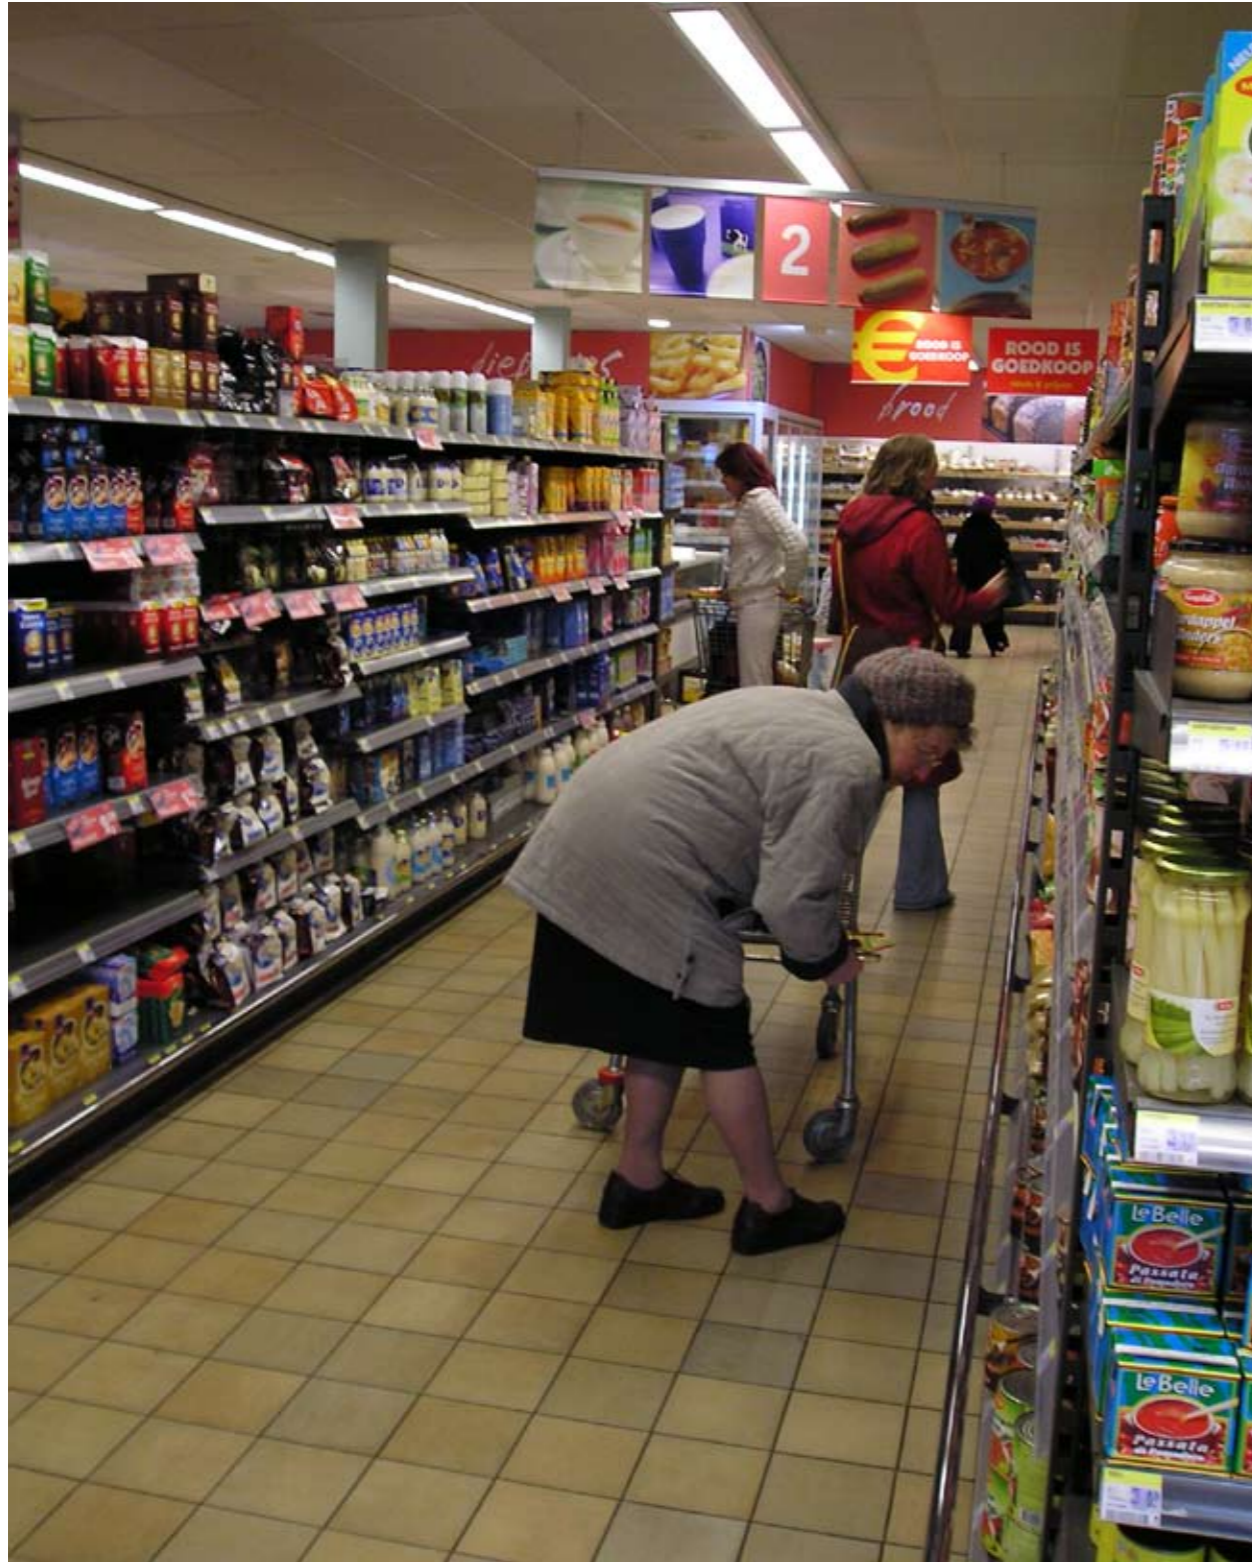

This train stops at every trainstation. There are also fast trains. Fast trains only stops in big cities.

There are passengers getting on the bus. This bus is going to leave.

Food

You can buy almost everything in a supermarket.

Snackbar with hamburgers, french frites and other snacks.

Food

Breakfast in Holland with milk and bread. On the left sandwich a topping of “hagelslag”, this is made of chocolate. The right sandwich is with cheese on it.

Dinner with potatoes, bacon and vegetables.

Dinner with vegetables and a big sausage.

Spare time

Almost every family has a personal computer.

This boy is playing a computer game with his friend. Most of the children in Holland are doing the same in their spare time.

Spare time

A girl playing in a playground.

Ice-skating in the center of Amsterdam.

Swimmingpool with children.

School

Learning the Dutch language.

Gymnastics.

Mathematics.

School

Children eating in the classroom.

Schoolyard in the break.

Handicraft lesson.

Environment

Polder landscape.

Landscape in winter.

Environment

The North Sea.

Forest.

Dunes on the coast.